Update and news

When the weather is this good the sea is just perfect. Over the last five weeks we have dived every weekend in the Sea, with the viz being absolutely fantastic. We had a great weekend at Anglesey shore diving last week. Good diving plenty to see – and we had a group BBQ on the beach and watched the sun set over the Irish Sea.

Swimming pool use

We have use of the pool most Thursday nights at Denby Dale. You are welcome to come and join for a swim and Jacuzzi and to have a social chat after at the pub. Space is limited so giving us a ring to check availability is essential.

We also can arrange access for using the 6m pool at Ponds Forge in Sheffield. This is normally on a Friday evening at 8pm. Great pool to practice skills in water deep enough to play!

Equipment hire and sales

We have a good selection of Scuba kit, including cylinders for hire. Please give me a ring to discuss your needs.

We now have the facilities to offer nitrox up to 40% - cylinders must be left with me for a couple of days. Cylinder oxygen cleaning is also available.

August Bank Holiday – St Abbs

Our next big weekend trip is to St Abbs on the Scottish borders. Great diving in the marine reserve of this section of coastline. Saturday is the annual 'Photo Splash In', I will of course be entering this, why not have a go yourselves.

Nemo 33

Once again we are running a trip to Nemo 33 in Belgium in September. Fantastic facility, with a maximum depth of 34.5m – the world's deepest scuba pool! See enclosed leaflet for details.

Smudge gains more awards for underwater photography (yawn, yawn)
